Responsibilities

Vendors are responsible for keeping their booth space neat and clean, abiding by set up and breakdown hours and maintaining a pleasant vendor environment.

Restrictions/Limitations

Booth space is generally granted on a first come, first served basis. However, in the interest of providing a wide variety of high quality merchandise and a fair and competitive retail climate for vendors, booth space may be denied. Every effort will be made to ensure that no more than one booth is selling a certain type of merchandise. St. Francis of Assisi reserves the right to deny your application for any reason.

Insurance

Vendors are required to purchase a Special Events insurance policy from Catholic Mutual (cost included in vendor fee) the attached application will be submitted to Catholic Mutual on your behalf.

Acknowledgement

I/we understand and agree that St. Francis of Assisi is not obligated to provide any protection or security from risk of damage, loss or injury to the undersigned and its licenses, invitees and works or to your property brought on to the premises, from whatever source and in future consideration for the use of the property for my booth. I/we fully release and agree not to seek recovery from St. Francis of Assisi for personal injury, loss, theft or damage of any kind whatsoever, to the undersigned and its licenses, invitees and workers or to any merchandise being shown. I/we further agree to abide by the rules and regulations detailed in the invitation and referenced above to apply for booths. I/we understand rain or shine there will be no refunds.
